TONOPAH DIVIDE SELLS IN NEW YORK FOR $7.50; ZONE .60; DIVIDE EX. 33

GOLD ZONE KEEPS ON SOARING
BROUGHER GOES TO DOLLAR MARK

There were plenty of spectacular features in the stock market today. The leader touched a new high mark with sales at $7.50 in New York and a quiet day on the west coast with few bids or offers and closing at $6.90. Total sales for the day in San Francisco were 624,300. Divide Extension made the greatest relative gain, touching 33 on a buyer 96 from a high of 27 the previous day. Hasbrouck is beginning to attract attention of the speculative element which has not been handling that stock and the influx of new blood was apparent in the fact that the sales are steadily growing with a total of 39,500 today and 33 as the top of the market. Zone was played stronger than any previous day and the transactions called for the delivery of 117,500 shares with 300 shares changing hands at 60c on a buyer 30. Gold Reef an unobtrusive stock put out by the company which Dick Williams.

All Wires Down
East of Denver

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—A severe sleet and snowstorm centering in Denver shut off direct communication with the east this morning. The Associated Press arranged its service over widely detoured wires.

GERMANS NOT GIVEN A VOICE IN PEACE TREATY

(By Associated Press)
BASLE, March 21.—The president of the German armistice committee at Spa presented a note to the inter-allied delegation asking if Germany should be considered as true statements that the French and British

GERMANY WIPED OFF MAP IN ONE YEAR

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 21.—One year ago today the German army, at the peak of its power, poured down on the British lines in Picardy, bent on winning an overwhelming victory before American troops could reach the front in force. Today Germany no longer exists as a military power. When the cables of March 21, 1918,

TOWN CRIER USED TO SELL BEER

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, March 21.—The town crier of Swanage recently paraded the streets of the village declaring there was no beer in the place, but that a plentiful supply could be had in Kingston, a village five miles away.

It frequently happens that under the rationing system the available supply of beer, wines and liquors for a given public house or even an entire community is consumed at one sitting, and there must then be a long wait until the regulations permit delivery of a new lot.

brought news of the first terrific German onslaughts. American effort, officers here today recalled, was striving toward the production of an army of 5,000,000 men equipped to bring victory in 1920. Within less than three months the first and second American armies had broken the very hinge of the whole enemy front.

FIRST FOOD SHIPS ARE TURNED OVER

(By Associated Press)
BERLIN, March 21.—The German steamers Burgermeister, Vonnella and Burgermeister Schroeder, which were scheduled to sail March 18, in accordance with the agreement between the German and inter-allied food commissions, have reached Brussels. They have been prevented leaving Hamburg owing to a resolution passed by the seamen they refusing to operate ships demanded by the entente nations.

GOVERNOR APPOINTED FOR ALSACE LORRAINE

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, March 21.—Alexander Millerand former minister of war, is reported to have been appointed governor of Alsace-Lorraine, an office which was declined by Charles Jonnart, former French governor general of Algeria.

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, March 21.—A semi-official German note explaining reasons for breaking off negotiations at Posen says it had been impossible to reach an agreement, especially regarding the presidency of the commission controlling the situation there. The Germans say they are considering the appointment of a president by Pope Benedict while the entente nations desire a permanent inter-allied commission to name the president.

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, March 21.—Italian delegates to the peace conference have unanimously decided to withdraw from the conference unless Fiume is assigned to Italy, contemporaneously with the conclusion of peace. The decision of the Italian delegation, apparently, brings a head to the bitter controversy between Italy and the new Jugo Slav state over the disposition of land along the Adriatic formerly belonging to Austria which both nationalities claim. Italy's claims originally included virtually the entire Italian coast with Trieste and Fiume, of which the latter city is the second principal seaport on the eastern side of the Adriatic. Recent reports have been that Italian representatives are manifesting a disposition to make important concessions regarding land along the Dalmatian coast provided the city and harbor of Fiume remain in Italy. The decision was reached at a meeting today of the full delegation with President Dyo and Premier Orlando and immediately communicated to the powers. Colonel House, of the American mission, promised President Orlando to present within a few days his project concerning the Italian Jugo Slav transfer which he hopes may satisfactorily settle the dispute.

Surrendered Subs Sent to Entente

(By Associated Press)
BASLE, March 21.—Ten German submarines which were to be delivered to the entente have left Hamburg, according to a dispatch received here.

FOCH SAYS FAITH WON GREAT WAR

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, March 21.—Marshal Foch was reminded today that March 21 was the anniversary of the beginning of the great German offensive towards Amiens. When asked by Jules Sauerwein of Le Matin to explain by what methods the marshal had turned the offensive into a German defeat, General Foch said:

"Our victories were won by science, that is true, but also by Faith. When one has faith, one does not retire; one stops the enemy where one finds him. You tell me I gave victory to France. It was our admirable soldiers who gave it. I have but one merit, that of never despairing."

TOLD QUIT FIGHTING ON LEMBERG FRONT

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, March 21.—Carrying out its recent decision to take action in bringing about a cessation of hostilities between the Ukrainians and Poles the allies supreme council sent a wireless message to General Paelanko of the Polish forces and another to General Rosewadowsky of the Ukrainian army enjoining both commanders to cause a suspension of hostilities by their forces on the Lemberg front immediately.

O'LEARY SEDITION CASE GIVEN JURY

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 21.—The case against Jeremiah O'Leary, of the American Truth society, which has been in progress eleven weeks was given the jury shortly before noon today. The case relates to alleged seditious writings and publications.

WOULD HAVE POPE APPOINT PRESIDENT

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, March 21.—A semi-official German note explaining reasons for breaking off negotiations at Posen says it had been impossible to reach an agreement, especially regarding the presidency of the commission controlling the situation there. The Germans say they are considering the appointment of a president by Pope Benedict while the entente nations desire a permanent inter-allied commission to name the president.

FORTY BILLION DAMAGES CHARGED TO TEUTONS

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, March 21.—Further information regarding the conference yesterday between Lloyd George, Clemenceau and Wilson became available today. Concerning reduction of the allied reparation claims against Germany to about forty billion dollars it was learned that one proposal was to spread the payment over 40 years. Against this proposal the commission has estimated all available wealth of Germany at home and abroad. The United States view as to these terms is that twelve billion is the utmost that can be expected.

TIME LIMIT PUT ON USING CABLES
BY GOVERNMENT

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, March 21.—Cable agencies say the rights of government departments to priority use of cables will be immediately drastically reduced. Government and non-government messages will be sent on alternate half hours. No commercial private cables could previously be transmitted until all government messages are cleared. The result is that often the government will occupy the cable twenty hours of the twenty-four.

WAR TWINS WANT TO BE SEPARATED

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, March 21.—Germany and Austria, according to advices received here, quoting Berlin newspapers, have expressed a desire for independent presentation at the peace conference. It also desires, the report says, that the question of its union with Germany will be postponed until conclusion of the conference.

SUPREME COURT HAS NOT ACTED

A report was current this afternoon that the Nevada supreme court had declared the dry law unconstitutional and that saloons in Reno were running wide open. The Bonanza wired Carson City and received a denial of the report with the statement that public opinion was to the effect that the court would not reverse the action of the eminent jurists who decided a similar point years ago and therefore, that, when the case comes to a hearing the court will declare the amendment unconstitutional.

E. M. REBBARD, chief clerk to the general superintendent of the Tonopah & Goldfield railroad, was a passenger today for Mina.
